Dear John --

Further to our recent email communications, I am writing to confirm October 14th-25th 2019 as the dates for our artistic research collaboration at the Emily Carr University of Art + Design.

As discussed I confirm access to studio workspace (digital fabrication lab/woodshop) and an exhibition in the Diffuser Gallery that will run from late October and throughout November. You'll stay with me so you won't incur accommodation expenses, we can also pay you to teach a couple of classes -- MDIA 300: Audiovisual Environments & NMSA 210: New Media & Sound Arts Core. We have a small materials budget.

Looking forward,

Best wishes
